

Date: 12/05/2010

Job Role: Volunteer Park Ranger

Purpose of Role: To assist with the management and maintenance of St Nicholas Fields nature reserve.

Job Description

- To help maintain and manage the nature reserve.
- To carry out and log regular checks around the nature reserve, such as graffiti, paths and fallen branches.
- To help develop management plans for the site.
- To engage with users of the nature reserve.
- To work with other volunteers and staff to manage the site, this could involve leading a group to carry out practical conservation work, planning practical tasks, ordering materials and writing risk assessments.

Timeframe

Length of Commitment: At least 4 months

Estimated Total Hours: At least 3 days a week (including Tues, Wed, Thurs)

Worksite: St Nicholas Fields Local Nature Reserve

Skills and abilities needed for this role

- Enthusiasm for wildlife, conservation and the outdoors;
- Some experience leading a group would be beneficial;
- Some experience of practical conservation tasks would be beneficial;
- Friendly and approachable nature;
- Reliable and able to use initiative;
- Able to get along with people from all backgrounds;

Benefits to you

- A full induction, training and ongoing support;
- A chance to learn new skills and gain practical experience as a park ranger, which is vital for a career in this competitive sector;
- Experience working in a position with important responsibilities and leading a group.
- References and help with job applications;
- A chance to help the environment, meet lots of like-minded people and to have fun outdoors;
- Own individual training budget to enhance your skills and qualifications;

Application deadline: 12 noon, Wednesday 2nd June

Provisional interview date: Friday 4th June

Role to be commenced: Flexible/ASAP

For more information contact:

Jonathan Dent, Volunteer Co-ordinator

Phone – 01904 411821

Email - volunteer@stnicksfields.org.uk